

OOPS. Last week we gave you the wrong phone number for retrieving your GM key (the one with the remote starter and blue flashlight) lost at the Free Skate before Christmas. Call Marcel at 374- 1983 to get it back.

Trinity United's first Family Fun Night saw about 40 people out for a kid friendly meal and movie. Glenda Turner says that youngsters from about 3 to 13 showed up with their family to enjoy the evening. The next one is Friday, Feb. 15 from 6:00 till the movie's over. Only $5 per family! Please call Jillian at Rural Visions to sign up so the crew knows how much food to cook. 374-6477

Missing the Market? Hang in there! They'll be back at the Lions Hall on Feb. 9 from 9 to noon with their usual selection of local meats, baking, take home meals and fine crafts. Opening day will celebrate Valentine's Day. "Bee There for Your Honey". Elizabeth Mitchell will be selling crocus for the Cancer Society. $4 a bunch or 3 bunches for $10. And of course there's the egg Mc Lion. In the meantime, don't forget the Trinity breakfasts Saturdays from 9-11:00.

Dr. Lynn Wilson tells us that the first dermatology clinic at the Verona Medical centre was a roaring success. Dr. Melanie Gooderham comes all the way from Peterborough for this much needed service. Bravo to our fine medical team for bringing these special services.

Further along those lines, Hany Girgis, the pharmacist who will bring a drug store to Verona says he hopes to be open in early March. He'll be setting up next to Local Family Farms (on the south side toward the back) just as soon as the current tenants (Accupump) have vacated. Hoo Hah!

Strong healing wishes go out to Peter Doulas, proprietor of MOM Restaurant. One of Verona's longest standing business owners and most stalwart community supporters, Peter suffered a heart attack last week. As of this writing he is slated to be home from hospital and awaiting a decision about open heart surgery. With a heart as big as Peter's it's an important decision.
